

No Ego, No Cry

Chorus

No ego, no cry

No ego, no why

No illusion, no cry

No ego, no try

Verse

('Cause, 'Cause) 'Cause I remember when I meditate

On the governing power of Presence

Just ah observing the narratives, yah

(As they would) Project on the pure souls I meet...

Perfect we are, God shines in all

That's the Dao, yah

In this blissful moment, no future no past

Illusions gone, I'm free

Chorus

No ego, no cry

(No ego, no cry) No ego, no cry.

Truth and Beauty, eternal Light

No ego, no why

Verse

(Now, Now) No one is there who must meditate

As the world illusion is gone now

And our God-Self always shines bright
(As it was) Heart is burnin' with delight!
Nondual wisdom does nourish
Compassion is shared with all
For God and soul in sweet marriage
Are dancing all darkness away
Now ego's gone

Bridge

Everything's always alright
Everything's already alright
Everything's so pure and bright
Everything's clearly made of light
Every day's filled with happiness
Every being's divinely blessed
Every glitch just a little test
Everything's all for the best

Chorus

No thinking, no cry
(No other) No other, no cry
Only the One Self free of all fears
No ego, no cry!
